CALL FOR SUBMISSIONS:

Develop your own writing skills!

reo: a journal of theology and ministry is calling for submissions for its first issue of 2020. We plan to publish a snapshot of life in this season for the Stirling community, by collating written reflections and any other artistic expressions.

Email reo@stirling.edu.au with an original artwork or reflection of under 200 words. Reflections can be in the form of poetry, prose, stories or parables, prayers, questions or ideas—anything that has come to your attention in this time.

reo is Stirling's online open access journal. See reojournal.com
